

871

The Bulgar King Boris I accepted Christianity under Byzantine jurisdiction

871-900

English King Alfred the Great
After several years of stubborn resistance, he reached a compromise with GUNTRUM, the Dane, whereby the entire northeastern half of England was given over to GUNTRUM
while the rest of England was spared.
The territory given to the Danes was known as the DANELAW
In the next century the DANELAW was reconquered, and gradually the Danes adopted Saxon ways!

871

Alfred the Great become King of Britain

871-899

born 849 died 899

ALFRED The Great - Fourth son of Ethelwulf
Anglo-Saxon King

871-899

Reign of Alfred the Great Fourth son of Ethelwulf
born 849 - Died 899

871-899

ALFRED THE GREAT

b 849 d 899

King of England 871-899

Fourth son of Ethelwulf

Anglo-Saxon king